FATE CARDS

Any Card	Inspiration. Once per action phase, you can play any card to allow 1 unit from a brigade that failed an activation test in that phase to carry out an action.
King	Rapid Deployment: Play this card when a Prussian brigade successfully activates. Add 6" to the move distance of its units for the rest of the phase.
Queen	Aggressive Attack. Play this card in a melee phase. Pick 1 Prussian brigade. For the rest of the phase add 1 to the melee value of units from that brigade.
Jack	Harsh Discipline. Play this card after a Prussian unit fails a valour test. Change the failed test to a successful test. In addition, add 1 to valour tests for Prussian units for the rest of the turn.
10	Capture. Play this card in your fate phase. Pick 1 enemy controlled objective. If you control it at the end of the game, it counts as 2 objectives when determining the winner of the game.
9	Surprise Attack. Play this card before a unit makes an assault. That unit can carry out 1 move before it assaults.
8	Inspiration. Play this card after a friendly player fails a valour test or fortitude test. The test is passed.
7	Directed Fire. Play this card when an enemy unit is chosen as a target in the fire phase. Add 1 to the fire value of units that attack the target. In addition, artillery units on a hill can trace a line of sight to the target across units that are not on a hill.

UNIT SPECIAL RULES

Counter-battery

When this unit shoots, the commanding player can say it is using counter-battery fire. If they do so, this unit must shoot at the closest visible enemy artillery unit that is in range and has not yet been attacked in that shooting phase.

Dismount

This unit can use a reform action to change formation and/or dismount or remount their horses.

- While mounted it is counted as light cavalry but cannot shoot.
- While dismounted it is counted as infantry with the extended order rule. It must be set up in extended order and cannot assault. It can shoot and fight back, and benefits from a minus 1 hit modifier if they are shot for being in extended order.

Extended Order

This unit can be set up in a line formation with a ¼" gap between its files and ½" gap between its ranks that is called extended order. The following rules apply to a unit that in extended order (in addition to the rules for being in a line).

- It has a move distance of 12" but cannot use a Double action.
- If it is light infantry or has rapid fire weapons, subtract 1 from hit rolls for attacks that target it in the fire phase unless it is in cover.
- Subtract 1 from its melee value unless it is in cover.
- It only adds 1 to a unit's melee value if it lends it melee support.
- It can move across figures from another friendly unit that is also in extended order even if they are not from the same brigade.

Heavy Artillery

Add 1 to hit rolls if the attacker and all units lending support are heavy artillery. Heavy artillery has a move distance of 6" when limbered and 1" when unlimbered.

Heavy Cavalry

Reroll hit rolls of 1 for melee attacks made by this unit, as long as all supporting units also have this rule, and the target is not occupying defendable terrain.

Light Cavalry

Add 2 to messenger tests for this unit.

Horse Artillery

This unit has a move distance of 18" when limbered and 9" when unlimbered. In addition, it can carry out an action even if it has fired in the same turn. Enemy infantry cannot use an assault to move into contact with horse artillery unless they start within 6" of the horse artillery unit.

Light Infantry

The unit has the Extended Order special rule (see above). If it is in extended order, its move distance is not affected by rough terrain, and it can leave defendable terrain on the same turn that it occupied it.

Militia

This unit cannot move in the same action phase that it reforms.

Rapid-fire

If a hit test for this unit is a 6 or more, then it inflicts 2 losses on the target instead of 1.

Shell

The following rules apply to a unit that has the shell special rule:

- Add 1 to its hit rolls if the attacker and all units lending support have this rule and the target is in a march or attack column.
- Add 1 to its attack value if the range to the target is up to 12" and it is at least partially in its front arc.
- It counts as 2 units instead of 1 when it lends fire or melee support if the range to the target is up to 12" and it is at least partially in its front arc.

Skirmishers

When this unit shoots, the commanding player can choose to use the unit's skirmishers. If they do so, the unit's fire value is halved and its range increased by 6", and it can carry out any action in the same turn apart from an assault. A unit can only use skirmishers to lend fire support if the attacking unit is also using skirmishers.

LEADER SPECIAL RULES

Helmuth von Moltke

Reinforcements from an army with this leader arrive 1 turn early.

Prince Friedrich Karl

Increase the distance of the automatic activation rule from 24" to 36" for this leader.

DESIGNERS COMMENTS

Elite Units: Units can have more than 1 value increased, but no single value can be increased by more than +1. So you could add 1 to a unit's fire and melee values, but not add 2 to its fire value.

Extended Order: Extended order represents the unit operating in a loose formation and lying prone. The -1 to hit modifier unless they are in cover represents units with breech-loading weapons or trained light infantry lying prone if they are in open terrain. If figures are mounted on a multiple base, the gap between the base and an adjacent base on the same row should be a ¼" for each figure in the front rank of the base.

Horse Artillery: The ability of unlimbered horse artillery to move 9" represents the crew quickly limbering and then unlimbering the artillery rather than them manhandling it to the new position.

Lances: I have not given special rules to lances because they did not appear to have been any more effective than sabres; the lance was deemed to be better at first contact, and the sabre better in the swirling melee that followed. As these two things cancel out, I have given the two weapons the same combat values.

Rapid Fire: Note that fire weapons only inflict 2 hits if the hit roll is 6 or more after any modifiers have been applied. Also note that this rule applies to attacks made in the fire phase and melee phase.

Prussian Brigades: Fate cards that refer to 'Prussian Brigades' include Brigades that have units belonging to allied German states such as Bavaria, Baden, and Württemberg.

Prussian Line Infantry: The line infantry profile can be used for Grenadiers, Fusiliers and Musketiers, as in terms of uniforms and tactics there really was very little difference between them. If you wish to differentiate between these units, we recommend that you upgrade some of them to elite status.

Shell: The shell rule also includes the effect of other types of ammunition such as shrapnel and canister. Note that the +1 to hit modifier for shooting at a unit in a march or attack column with shell ammunition is in addition to the plus 1 attack value modifier for artillery shooting at a dense target.
